Customer Reviews

This book is a must for photographers. Normally one spend good money in training and technical books on photography and pay not too much attention to the reasons on why photography and its critics. Susan Sontag despite of not being a photographer herself openly discuss about moral, aesthetic, and the very loud impact and dependence of today's world on photography.

Susan Sontag, autora de este escrito pionero, busca los significados de la fotografÃ-a mas allÃ de verlo como soporte de la realidad.

Everything is ok, exactly as expected. Arrived on time
